Retailer margin at suggested price: $4.00 per bar (40%).

Why Single Estate

We grow on separate estates and we do not blend them — every bar is a single origin, made from one farm's fruit. That is the whole point: the same 81% recipe reads completely differently depending on the soil it came from, and a single-estate bar is a claim about a place rather than a house style. It is the same reason your tasting room exists.

The Origins

Oscar's Farm — Bahia, Brazil

Deep, dark European chocolate profile with exceptionally buttery, velvety mouthfeel. Intense chocolate notes with subtle undertones of earth and wood. Smooth, low-acidity finish.

Coming online: Vivi's Jesus Do Deus Farm, Itacaré — a former cattle ranch turned regenerative cacao forest. Ask us for availability.

Ordering & Shipping

Order size	Terms
12 bars (opening order)	$72.00 — the low-risk way to find out how it moves
Reorder	Same per-bar price, no volume tiers — reorder deeper as it sells
24+ bars	Free shipping within the contiguous US
Under 24 bars	Shipping billed at cost

Start with one case rather than over-committing: the per-bar price does not change with volume, so there is no reason to buy deep before you know how it sells. Reorder when it moves.

Note: prices exclude shipping unless stated. Bars ship from our San Francisco warehouse. Availability depends on the current harvesting season, so please confirm stock when ordering.

Every bar sold helps plant a tree as part of our mission to restore 10,000 hectares of Amazon rainforest.
